

Library Computer Classroom 153 Room Usage Policy

The primary purpose of room 153 is to serve as a training facility for library and legal research instruction for the law school's students, faculty and staff. Usage of the room for this purpose shall have priority over all other use.

Other groups affiliated with the law school such as departments within the law school, law school programs, centers and institutes may use the room for training purposes subject to availability (see schedule on the library web site at: <http://www.law.umn.edu/library/room153.htm>) and with the approval of the Reference and Collection Development Librarian, Vic Garces (garce003@umn.edu, 4-2597).

Any exceptions to this policy must be approved by the Associate Director for Faculty & Public Services.

July 1, 2008